

Wireless online readers

Online functionality with battery-driven readers prima

Wireless online system for the most demanding environment

By connecting the wireless online module to the Alpha central, it is possible to real-time communicate with up to 16 (*) battery-driven offline readers. Specific doors, where cabling is not an option, can easily be equivalent segment of high secure system. Even more, wireless online system includes all online functionalities.

(*) up to 16 devices with 868MHz communication, up to 8 devices with BLE communication

Advantages with wireless online

- Real-time online events and remote opening via app or widget
- Effortless setup and management with Nova software
- Wireless online and wired online readers can be used in the same access control system
- High level security with encrypted wireless data transmission (AES 128 bit)
- A solution for every situation with a wide range of various smart offline devices

